A true urban sanctuary in the heart of Washington Square West, 421 S Jessup Street is a picture-perfect townhome with charm for days, thoughtfully updated and impeccably maintained. Set on one of Philadelphia's most charming and photogenic blocks—especially Spring with cherry blossoms in bloom—this home offers a rare blend of tranquility, character, and modern comfort. Inside, you'll find original hardwood floors, new plush carpet, a refreshed kitchen, and an updated primary bath, creating a move-in-ready experience.

The main level features an open and inviting living and dining area with recessed lighting, a corner wood-burning fireplace, and French doors that lead to a lush, private brick garden—perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The kitchen is both stylish and functional, complete with Shaker-style cabinetry, granite countertops, breakfast bar seating, and high-end appliances including a Thermador cooktop and range. Enjoy those cherry blossom views while you're cooking out the front window.
